

Assignment 15.3: Input System

The inputs are used for various reason, but usually, WASD keys are for to move a player, mouse left-click are usually for the certain actions like shooting in shooting game, shooting the goal in soccer games and others. And finally, the space bar is another use for specific actions like opening the door in Wolfenstein 3D, to jump a character in some action games, etc.